M 8260 RETIREMENT, PLACEMENT ON TEMPORARY DISABILITY RETIRED LIST, DISCHARGE WITH SEVERANCE PAY, OR INVOLUNTARY RELEASE TO INACTIVE DUTY WITH READJUSTMENT PAY

1. SHIPMENT TO HOME OF SELECTION AUTHORIZED. A member on active duty is entitled to shipment of his household goods from his last or any previous duty station, from a designated place in the United States, from storage, or any combination thereof, to the home selected by the member for the purpose of receiving travel allowances for his travel in accordance with par. M4158 when the member:

1. is retired for physical disability or is placed on the temporary disability retired list (without regard to length of service); or
2. immediately following at least 8 years of continuous active duty (with no single break therein of more than 90 days), is retired with pay for any other reason (including transfer to the Fleet Reserve or Fleet Marine Corps Reserve), is discharged with severance pay, or is involuntarily released to inactive duty with readjustment pay.

Except as provided in subpar. 4, the goods must be turned over to a transportation officer or carrier for shipment within 1 year following termination of active duty. Shipment of household goods is authorized to a place other than the member's home of selection, or part to such home and part to some other place, provided that the member shall bear all costs in excess of the costs of shipment in one lot to his home of selection.

2. SHIPMENT TO HOME OF SELECTION NOT AUTHORIZED. A member on active duty will be entitled to shipment of household goods in accordance with par. M8259 when the member:

1. is retired without pay; or
2. has less than 8 years of continuous active duty immediately preceding retirement for any other reason (other than physical disability), discharge with severance pay, or involuntary release to inactive duty with readjustment pay.

3. STORAGE. A member or a dependent who is entitled to shipment of household goods to a home of selection or to some other place under the conditions outlined in subpar. 1 or 8 will be entitled to nontemporary storage of all or any portion of such household goods in accordance with par. M8101 for a period not to exceed 1 year from the date of termination of active duty. Temporary storage in connection with a shipment from nontemporary storage to the home or other place selected by the member or his dependent under subpar. 1 or 8 is not authorized except when all of the following conditions exist:

1. when necessary because of conditions beyond control of the member, or dependent if applicable;
2. when such conditions arise after shipment from nontemporary storage;
3. when temporary storage is authorized or approved by the transportation officer or such other officer as the Service concerned may designate.

That portion (if any) of a member's household goods which is not placed in nontemporary storage in accordance with this subparagraph may be placed in temporary storage in accordance with par. M8100 in conjunction with the shipment of such goods to the home or other place selected by the member or his dependent under subpar. 1 or 8.

4. MEMBERS UNDERGOING HOSPITALIZATION OR MEDICAL TREATMENT. A member, entitled to shipment of household goods to a home of selection, who is confined in, or undergoing treatment at, a Government hospital (or a civilian hospital at Government expense) on the date of termination of active duty, will be entitled to shipment and storage of household goods under the conditions outlined in subpars. 1 and 3, except that the right to nontemporary storage and shipment of household goods to a home of selection will accrue until 1 year after the date of discharge from the hospital or termination of medical treatment, or 2 years after the date of termination of active duty, whichever is earlier. Further extension of this time limit may be approved by the Secretary of the service concerned or his designated representative.

5. RECALL TO ACTIVE DUTY PRIOR TO SELECTION OF A HOME. A member who is otherwise eligible to select a home but is recalled to active duty prior to the selection of a home and performance of travel thereto will, upon termination of active duty for any reason under honorable conditions, be entitled to nontemporary storage and shipment of household goods to a home of selection in accordance with subpars. 1 and 3, provided that such goods are turned over to a carrier for shipment within 1 year after the member is last released from active duty. In the event of the member's death subsequent to ultimate release, the provisions of subpar. 8 will apply.

6. RECALL TO ACTIVE DUTY SUBSEQUENT TO SELECTION OF A HOME. A member who is recalled to active duty subsequent to the selection of a home and performance of travel thereto will, upon termination of active duty under honorable conditions, be entitled to shipment of household goods to the home previously selected, or the place from which he was called to active duty, whichever he may elect.

7. MEMBERS ON TEMPORARY DISABILITY RETIRED LIST WHO ARE DISCHARGED OR RETIRED. A member who is on the temporary disability retired list at the time he is discharged with severance pay or retired for any reason (including transfer to the Fleet Reserve or Fleet Marine Corps Reserve) will not be entitled to shipment of household goods in connection with such discharge or retirement. This limitation will not affect the member's right to shipment and storage of household goods to which he was entitled under subpars. 1, 3, and 4 in conjunction with his placement on the temporary disability retired list.

8. MEMBER DIES SUBSEQUENT TO RETIREMENT OR RELEASE

a. After Selection of a Home. In the event a member specified under subpar. 1 dies after he claims personal travel and transportation allowances under par. M4158 for travel to his home of selection, but prior to shipment of his household goods, such goods may be shipped at Government expense, upon the request of his dependents, to the home selected by the member, to a home or other place selected by his dependents, or partly to each, provided that the dependents shall bear all costs in excess of the costs of shipment in one lot to the home selected by the member. If there are no surviving dependents, such household goods may be shipped to the home of the person legally entitled thereto, provided such person shall bear all costs in excess of the costs of shipment to the home selected by the member. The provisions of this subparagraph also apply when it is established that the member in fact completed travel to his home of selection but died prior to submission of claim for his personal travel and transportation allowances.

b. Prior to Selection of a Home. In the event a member specified under subpar. 1 dies prior to submission of claim for his personal travel and transportation allowances, and it is not established that travel was in fact completed to his home of selection, and provided his household goods have not been shipped, such goods may be shipped at Government expense, upon the request of his dependents, to a home or to some other place selected by his dependents, or partly to each, provided that such dependents shall bear all costs in excess of the costs of shipment in one lot to the home selected by them. If there are no surviving dependents, such household goods may be shipped at Government expense to the home of the person legally entitled thereto.

9. MEMBERS ORDERED TO HOME TO AWAIT DISABILITY RETIREMENT. A member who has been found by a physical evaluation board unfit to perform the duties of his rank or grade and who, for the convenience of the Government, is ordered from a hospital to his home, or a designated place, to await further orders in connection with disability retirement, is entitled to shipment of household goods to his home or the designated place. Shipments made under this subparagraph will not preclude reshipment of such household goods when retirement or other orders ultimately are issued. Such entitlement is subject to adjustment upon final disposition of retirement proceedings so as not to exceed entitlement for the distance from the member's permanent station at the time that he received the orders directing him to proceed in an awaiting orders status to the point to which he is entitled incident to retirement, release from active duty, etc., less any amount previously paid for transportation of household goods to the waiting point.
